

Christopher Beltran is the Owner of Southwest Development Group. He has a bachelor's degree in English and Spanish from Colorado State University-Pueblo as well as a Master's of Social Work from Colorado State University-Fort Collins. He has 3 decades of proposal development and proposal writing experience with a distinct focus on access, achievement, and equity among underrepresented populations. Christopher has effectively garnered resources for colleges and universities, charter schools, early colleges, community based organizations, and government agencies. His experience also includes program development, evaluation and strategic planning. He has served as a Project Director of Title V and TRIO programs at both the 2-year and 4-year level. Christopher now works exclusively with Hispanic Serving Institutions developing capacity to support the success of low-income, first-generation and minority college students.

